

I value being able to choose my internet provider and I have chosen a smaller company with excellent customer service. Granting Bellsouth's request would likely cause an increase in my payment to my smaller company and I would like to see this request denied.